

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARINGS BY THE
JOHNSON COUNTY COUNCIL

Notice is hereby given that the Johnson County Council (the "Council"), as the fiscal body of Johnson County, Indiana (the "County"), will, at meetings to be held in the County Annex located at 86 West Court Street in Franklin, Indiana, on September 9, 2024, at 6:00 p.m. local time, and on October 14, 2024, at 6:00 p.m. local time, conduct separate public hearings on a preliminary determination to issue one or more series of general obligation bonds of the County (the "Bonds"). The proposed Bonds would be issued to finance all or a portion of the following: acquiring vehicles, acquiring and installing certain equipment, completing certain projects and making certain improvements and renovations, which is necessary in order for the County to fulfill certain of its governmental functions and responsibilities to the taxpayers and residents of the County, including without limitation, improvements to the Johnson County Fairgrounds, park improvements, acquisition of highway equipment, acquisition of maintenance equipment, improvements to the North Annex, and certain technology upgrades and equipment (collectively, the "Project"). The proposed Bonds will be payable from ad valorem property taxes levied and collected on all taxable property within the County. At each public hearing, the Council will make certain information available to the public regarding the proposed Bonds and the Project as required by law and will allow members of the public to testify regarding the preliminary determination to issue the Bonds for the Project. Following such public hearings, the Council may consider the adoption of a resolution making a preliminary determination on behalf of the County to issue the Bonds to finance the Project.

Dated this 23rd day of August, 2024.
