

The Johnson County Council is seeking proposals from qualified attorneys to provide legal advice and representation as outside counsel on an as-needed basis. The selected candidate will represent and advise the Johnson County Council where conflicts prevent the County's legal department from handling a matter, as well as for other special assignments as needed.

Qualifications:

- * Licensed and in good standing with the Indiana State Bar.
- * Experience with litigation and government or municipal law preferred.
- * Ability to provide timely and effective legal advice on an as-needed basis.

Interested attorneys should submit their resume to the County Auditor, Elizabeth Alvey, at ecalvey@co.johnson.in.us by April 11th to be considered for the role.
