

2024 General Election results for Johnson County, Indiana, will begin to be posted shortly after 6 PM ET and at different points throughout the evening and can be accessed by the icon on the front page of the site. Please check back then. Please note that you may need to refresh your web browser or clear your browser cache to get the latest posted update. Thank you!